INVITATION TO A

Karamu a feast that traditionally takes place on January 1st, the 7th day of the Kwanzaa period that begins December 26th.
This year we will celebrate Karamu on December 28th, the 3rd day of Kwanzaa, which is UJIMA, Collective Work & Responsibility

The program will include music, singing, poetry readings and dancing and will conclude with the Karamu (feast.)

Activities for children will be offered at the Museum in partnership with The Children's Museum of Brazos Valley.

Join us for our Karamu and bring a treasured family dish for all to share
