

Celebrate and Honor

Mothers

Where: Brazos Valley African American Museum

500 E. Pruitt Street, Bryan, TX

When: Saturday, May 13, 2017

Time: 2:00- 4:00 P.M.

Audience: Anyone from age 4 to 104!

Interactive Events:

- Come wearing a favorite hat with its special story
- Listen to a history of hats in the African American Culture
- Learn how the Red Hatter Society began
- Enjoy a story about "Miss Fannie's Hats"
- View a display of hats with history and memories
- Participate in a "Hat Parade" and story sharing
- Use your creativity to magically create a hat for a Mother, Grandmother, Aunt, or Friend in your life using two pieces of newspaper and craft items such as ribbons, pom poms, flowers, feathers, yarn, fabric pieces, tissue paper, buttons
- Buy tickets for a hat raffle

A Creative Experience for Adults and Children to Share!